SOCIETY CIRCUS AT CHELSEA YACHT CLUB EVENT OF THE WEEK

Plenty of Pink Lemonade and Peanuts—Fortune Tellers and Snake Charmers Prosper—Cape May and Wildwood Personals

resterday afternoons, for all the cottagers turned their attention to the big gesty Circus, held on the spacious lawns astrounding the Chelsea Yacht Club. The yesterday afternoons, for all the cotstants were so numerous and of such marked diversity that no one wanted to tike a chance of staying away and missin some of the galety, which reached as elmas last night, when the fun con-singled with a barn dance. There were tents with mystic signs and opensir booths of fantantic lesigns, with put lemonade and peanuts in abundance. Ink lemonade and peanuts in abundance, Nathing was missing, from the bearded gay to the snake charmers. Mr. Edward Rogers was announced as the giant and Mr. Harry Koimes as the maget. There Mr. Harry Moines as the minget. There were trapeze evolutions by Mr. George Resck. Mr. George Young, Mr. Horace Thomas and Mr. Albert W. Sanson. To fake William T. Wheeler was allotted the Lake of making the scale perform. Mrs. Clayton Le. Hary converted one of the tests into a gipsy paradiag and talk. the tents into a gipsy paradise and told feetures. She was attired in a pic-mesque Oriental continue and did a rushthresque Oriental costume and did a rush-ter business, for fortune tellers are barred from the resort and girls causer to read the mysteries of the future were jolly glad to cross her paim with silver.

"Moute Carlo" was very popular with those who are keen for the name of chance. The destinies of this "iguropean chance. The destines of this ran opening and if were ably managed by Mr. William F. Metager. Mr. John A. McQualo and Mr. Harry L. Appleton. The English the booth was particularly lovely. Mrs. W. S. Jones and Mrs. Thomas Percival W. S. Jones and Mrs. Thomas Fereval powed. Adjoining this was an oriental massar, where Mrs. Edward Bookmyer. Mrs. France Detwiler, Mrs. Frederick Farks, Mrs. Charles Welld, Ars. William Allen, Mrs. Thomas Keefer, Ars. Thomas F. Simmons and Mrs. George Shisler pre-

Sinclair, Mrs. Edward Rosers, Mrs. A. Lincoln Myers. Miss Dorothy Sinclair, Miss Lamb, Mrs. Charles F. Bonser. Baby's every need was supplied at the fuvenile bazaar under the direction of Mrs. H. J. M. Cardeza, Jr., Mrs. Bertram G. Frazier, Mrs. H. T. Harvey. A quaint Dutch sitchen, where a large variety of delicatessen food was on sale, was successfully managed by Mrs. Harry Humphreys. Mrs. Florence Townsend, Mrs. William T. Metzger, Mrs. Helen von Mostrand and Mrs. C. J. Miller. The country store was liberally patronised, and its wares included everything from laffy on-the-stick to bandanna handkerand its wares included everything from teffy-on-the-stick to bandanna handker-chiefs and overalis. The "salesladies" were Mrs. G. B. Rowe, Mrs. Milton Off, Mrs. David G. Smith, Mrs. H. H. Green-wald, Mrs. William Richl, Mrs. Rebecca Fleming and Mrs. J. H. Fulmer. They were assisted by a group of pretty girls. An amusement not found at many cir-cuses was a cruise on the bay. Hand-somely appointed yachts were provided by Commodore Samuel Whan, Mr. Earl Eng-lish, Mr. Paul M. Bradley, Mr. J. Rees Bradley, Mr. Gilbert Donable, Jr., Mr. Forrest B. English and Mr. Frederick Palloss, Jr.

Rollman, Jr.

The entire affair was under the direction of the men of the Chelsea Yacht. Club, and they were ably assisted by the following representatives of the Woman's Auxiliary; Mrs. Sanuel W. Whan, Mrs. Jehn M. Bradley, Mrs. John Meguale, Mrs. William S. Vare, Mrs. Andres E. Lawler, Miss. Mabel Coleman, Miss Helen McQuale, Miss Mary Gummer, Mrs. Edward Wilkinson and Mrs. G. C. J. Roesch.

The Private School a Great Influence in the Moral and Religious Life of Your Children

Many a mother and father is thankful because they were far-sighted enough to send their boys and girls to a first-class private school.

AS ONE FATHER SAID TO US: "We could scarcely believe that James could nave developed so in one short year. His whole attitude has changed; he treats his sister and mother with more respect; he seems so much more manly and gentlemanly, and in every way he is becoming more and more what we want him

THIS TELLS THE STORY. Send your boy or girl to a private school where they will be away from the evils that confront them when they are thrown among so many kinds of people every day. Send them where they will be inspired to better things. It will develop their characters.
